

Gatherings

Are you looking for some place different for your Rehearsal Dinner, Anniversary, Birthday or Holiday Party or would like to get out of the office to hold a special meeting?

We think you'll agree that Gatherings is that "some place different." Don't settle for the same old hotel banquet room or conference room, or that noisy restaurant where you're just one of several people being attended to, give your guests and/or clients something special, something unusual, something private. Once you first step into this quaint yet stylish venue you feel a sense of "home," of romance, of calm and grandeur. And the staff — they are some of the best in the county, and they will take care of your every need!

Frequently Asked Questions!

1. What other costs should I consider?

With the exception of any special desert, like a birthday cake, and any libations you wish to purchase, there are no other costs you need incur! The ambiance of the home itself is such that no decorations or flowers are really needed, the elegant menu and all rentals (tables, linens, chairs, china, glassware and silverware) is included.

2. What is the amount required for a deposit?

The initial deposit to confirm and reserve your date is equal to the amount of the Facility Fee. This is a non-refundable deposit.

3. When is the initial deposit due?

While there is no timeframe for the initial deposit, both the deposit and signed contract is required to secure your date. Gatherings holds a first come, first served policy, and no date is secure until receipt of the deposit and contract.

4. How much time can we have to set-up and decorate the room?

One of the many advantages of having a party at Gatherings is there is little, if any, need for other decorations. The house itself is a "decoration." However, if you wish to add to the ambiance of Gatherings, we will be happy to accommodate you with the time needed.

5. Can we bring our own wine and liquor?

Yes! This is another of the advantages of having a reception at Gatherings. We do not have a liquor license to sell alcohol, but are happy to help you determine what beverages will go best with your menu choice, determine quantities, order it, pick it up for you, and of course serve it... and, Gatherings has NO Corkage Fee! This is actually a tremendous savings for you, as you are able to purchase your choice of premium champagne, wine, beer and other alcohol at "store" prices rather than the inflated prices that many venues put on their mandated list of beverages.

6. Will a staff member personally handle and be in attendance at our event?

Yes, with the exception of smaller business meetings, our on-site coordinator will be at your Event the entire time.

7. Will we be responsible for any clean-up?

Absolutely not. This is part of the service. If you are using any outside vendors, they are, however, responsible to clean up anything that was brought in as a part of their service to you.
